

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, This nation was founded upon the principles of individual effort, free enterprise, human dignity, personal involvement, informed participation, mutual respect, pride in accomplishment, change through peaceful evolution and faith in God; and,

WHEREAS, Through the years of our existence, many of these principles have become obscured, neglected, de-emphasized at home and ridiculed abroad; and,

WHEREAS, Apathy has become the rule rather than the exception and the majority has thrust the burden of leadership on the few; and,

WHEREAS, It is recognized that the average citizen continues to be proud, patriotic, faithful, loyal, and supportive of the principles upon which this nation was founded; and,

WHEREAS, It is recognized that it is fitting, proper and appropriate that a day be set aside to reaffirm our dedication to the principles which created this great nation and secured for all of us the blessings of freedom and peace:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim June 28, 1981, as

AMERICAN UNITY DAY

In South Dakota.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-seventh Day of April, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-One
